

Greater Depth in Primary R.E

Discover simple but effective strategies to support children's R.E. work in this engaging, practical series of two twilights.

Whether you're a faith school looking to expand your provision beyond religious doctrine and practice, or a secular school coming from the opposite perspective, this course is the perfect way to push for higher standards in an interesting but often controversial subject.

Link your R.E. provision to current developments in curriculum design: developing pupils' love of the subject, helping them to draw on other subjects but also using R.E. to inform those subjects – all without compromising on academic standards.
